

Directions to the Milltown Bluff Overlook

From Missoula:	From Helena/Bonner:
Go east on Hwy 200                      Right on Speedway                      Left on Deer Creek Road                      You'll drive through the Canyon River Golf Course                      The road turns to gravel                      Go past the Shooting Range                      Continue up the hill                      Just as you crest the hill, you'll see signs on the left                      You can park along the road                      Signs mark the trail entrance                      It's a short walk to the bluff	Hwy 12 to I-90 West                      Exit 109 (Bonner exit)                      Take Highway 200 east                      Left on Speedway                      Left on Deer Creek Road                      You'll drive through the Canyon River Golf Course                      The road turns to gravel                      Go past the Shooting Range                      Continue up the hill                      Just as you crest the hill, you'll see signs on the left                      You can park along the road                      Signs mark the trail entrance                      It's a short walk to the bluff

*The area surrounding the trail and overlook are private property.
 Please respect posted signs and fencing.*